TEXAS RENEGADES – ALIVE AND WELL

First of all, the original intent was certainly NOT to start a new square dance club in the middle of a pandemic - we just wanted to dance, but none of the area clubs were dancing...

As everyone knows, it was in March 2020 that everything in our normal lives either changed immensely or came to a halt all together – and that included square dancing in the entire Houston area (and pretty much the entire country). But there are a few hard-headed square dancers out there, and some around here did not want to stop dancing, no matter what was going on. No one could have guessed at the time just how long all of this would continue.

On Friday, May 1, 2020, Kay and Bill Ranshaw entertained several dancers at their home to dance to CD's in their large three-car garage. At the time it was still relatively cool outside, so they opened up the garage doors and turned on the music. If you have ever square danced to a recorded caller, you know it is not the easiest thing to do – but it was better than not square dancing at all! As is typical for any square dancing activity, dinner was also served! There were 16 dancers that first Friday. So they did it again the next week and most of those dancers came back plus a few more that got word of what was going on.

After a few weeks, this group of dancers had grown to four squares and was now using both the garage and part of the driveway for dancing – and it was getting pretty warm outside! As the group pondered what they could possibly do going forward, Roxie Walker and Bruce Behrens thought that their small church might be willing to allow the group to dance in their fellowship hall on a weekly basis. And when asked, the church agreed to this arrangement.

On Friday, May 29, 2020, Kay and Bill, Roxie and Bruce, Karen and Dennis Clawson and Dawn and Ken Hengst organized and sponsored a square dance at Fairbanks United Methodist Church. Local caller Tim Ploch called the dance and 50 dancers attended. So the group sponsored another dance the next Friday night, and the next...and the dances have continued every week, changing to Saturdays in September when the group moved to Terrace United Methodist Church.

All along, the purpose of this group was to have fun, to give local, regional and national callers an opportunity to work when there was little calling available, to enjoy the fellowship with other dancers and to square dance, of course. We found that one of the benefits of these dances was that we met some people that we had not met before – some because our clubs always danced on the same night and some that drove to Houston from the Brenham area because there were no dances being held there. This group of four from Brenham continues to come to almost every dance we hold.

In the fall of 2020, we realized that our world was not going to return to normal any time soon. Some discussion began regarding starting an actual square dance club. We wanted to keep everything as simple as possible so we decided that we would not collect prepaid dues but members and visitors would just pay for each dance they attend. And to become a member, you needed to buy a badge. We officially joined HSRDC in April 2021.

Collectively, the entire group chose the name Texas Renegades. We used Texas because the membership is not all from Houston but includes folks from the entire surrounding area. We thought Renegades (individuals who reject conventional behavior) was an appropriate name for a bunch that was not following the norms of the time.

It is now one year later and we have had 23 different callers at our dances; we have 82 members; we are a Plus club; we often add an "A" tip in the dance if there are enough "A" dancers to form a square; our average attendance over the last year is 50 dancers per night; our average attendance for the last six weeks is 57 dancers per night; our highest attendance was May 21, 2021 with 80 dancers attending; and it is a great group of square dancers having fun dancing together every week.

We would love for you to join us each and every Saturday night from 7:00 to 9:00 at Terrace United Methodist Church, 1203 Wirt Rd, Houston, 77055. And we would especially love for you to join us this Saturday, June 5, when we will have a FREE dance with Bronc Wise calling to celebrate the one-year anniversary of our first official dance.
